Congressional Record

PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 76th CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION

SENATE

TUESDAY, JANUARY 3, 1939

The 3d of January being the day prescribed by the Constitution of the United States for the annual meeting of Congress, the first session of the Seventy-sixth Congress commenced this day.

The Senate assembled in its Chamber at the Capitol.

JOHN N. GARNER, of Texas, Vice President of the United States, called the Senate to order at 12 o'clock meridian.

The Chaplain, Rev. Z. Barney T. Phillips, D. D., of the city of Washington, offered the following

PRAYER

Eternal God and Heavenly Father, who art the help and the hope of all who turn to Thee, forgive whatever is amiss in these poor human lives—our sins, our ignorances, and our oft misusings of Thy grace—that with pure hearts and clear minds we may at this the threshold of another year rededicate ourselves to Thee.

Send Thou Thy strength on hearts that pray to Thee for strength to serve Thee still, that, in pure devotion to our country, we may spend ourselves for others' greater need and never count the cost. Let Thy choicest blessings be upon our President, our Vice President, the Members of the Senate, all others in authority, and upon every citizen of our beloved America. And now, O Ruler of the destinies of nations, Thou mighty unbeginning God, from the depths of whose silent, joyful rest love o'erflowed into the lap of time, brood with Thy Spirit upon the face of the world, that love again may overflow, 'til, like the sudden chiming of a bell, joy wells up in the hearts of men and peace on earth becomes the heavenly antiphon forever and forever. We ask it in the name of Him who is the Prince of Peace, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

SENATOR FROM CALIFORNIA—RESIGNATION OF SENATOR M'ADOO

The VICE PRESIDENT laid before the Senate a letter from the secretary to former Senator McAdoo, of California, which, with the accompanying letter of resignation of Mr. McAdoo, was ordered to lie on the table and to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

LOS ANGELES, CALIF., December 14, 1938.

Col. EDWIN A. HALSEY,

Secretary of the Senate, Washington, D. C.

MY DEAR COLONEL HALSEY: Senator McAdoo has directed me to send you a copy of his letter of resignation as United States Senator, dated November 9, 1938, which you will find enclosed.

Sincerely yours,

ALICE DALTON,

Secretary to W. G. McAdoo.

UNITED STATES SENATE

NOVEMBER 9, 1938.

MY DEAR GOVERNOR: I hereby resign the office of United States Senator, to take effect immediately.

In surrendering the commission which the people of California gave me in 1932, I desire to take advantage of the opportunity now presented to express my deep appreciation of the honor they conferred on me to represent California in the Senate of the United States.

My resignation is prompted by the fact that the Maritime Commission at Washington has invited me to become chairman of the board of directors of the round-the-world steamship line formerly known as the Dollar Line—the name of which has recently been changed to American President Lines. I cannot assume the duties of this position without surrendering my commission as United States Senator; and, as those duties demand my immediate attention, I feel obliged to retire now.

It has been a pleasure, my dear Governor, to cooperate with you during your term of office in many important matters affecting the welfare of California, which have required action at Washington.

With best wishes, I am,

Cordially yours,

W. G. McADOO.

HON. FRANK F. MERRIAM,

Governor of California, Sacramento, Calif.

CREDENTIALS

The VICE PRESIDENT. Senators, the Chair is going to take the liberty of asking permission, in the interest of saving time, that the credentials of the newly elected Senators and a Senator-designate be printed in the RECORD without the formality of being read by the clerk. Is there objection?

Mr. McNARY. Mr. President, I was requested by the Democratic leader to make that request, but, inasmuch as it has been made by the Vice President, I heartily concur in the suggestion.

The VICE PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

The credentials were ordered to be placed on file and to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

DEATH OF SENATOR COPELAND

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, we were all profoundly shocked when, shortly after the adjournment of the last session of the Congress, we learned of the death of my late colleague, Senator COPELAND. By his death the country lost one of its really great statesmen, and we, his colleagues, in addition to losing an associate of great ability, were bereft of a devoted friend, and his family of a devoted husband and father. I know that opportunity will be afforded me on some later occasion to pay a well-deserved tribute to this truly great and good man.

At this time I submit a resolution, for the consideration of which I ask unanimous consent.

The VICE PRESIDENT. The resolution will be read.

The resolution (S. Res. 4) was read, considered by unanimous consent, and unanimously agreed to, as follows:

Resolved, That the Senate has heard with profound sorrow and deep regret the announcement of the death of Hon. ROYAL S. COPELAND, late a Senator from the State of New York.

Resolved, That the Secretary communicate these resolutions to the House of Representatives and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

SENATOR FROM NEW YORK

Mr. WAGNER presented the credentials of JAMES M. MEAD, of New York, elected a Senator from that State for the unexpired term of Royal S. Copeland, deceased, ending on the 2d day of January 1941, which were read, as follows:

To the PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES:

This is to certify that on the 8th day of November 1938 JAMES M. MEAD was duly chosen by the qualified electors of the State of New York a Senator from said State to represent said State in the Senate of the United States for the unexpired term of Royal S. Copeland, deceased.

Witness: His Excellency our Governor, Herbert H. Lehman, and our seal hereto affixed at Albany, this 7th day of December A. D. 1938.

By the Governor:

HERBERT H. LEHMAN, Governor.
EDWARD J. FLYNN,
Secretary of State.

[SEAL]

The VICE PRESIDENT. The credentials will be placed on file.

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, my colleague from New York is present and desires to take the oath of office.

The VICE PRESIDENT. If the Senator-elect will present himself at the desk, the oath will be administered to him.

Mr. MEAD, escorted by Mr. WAGNER, advanced to the Vice President's desk, and the oath of office prescribed by law was administered to him by the Vice President.

ORDER OF BUSINESS

Mr. BARKLEY. Mr. President, I wish to announce for the benefit of Senators, that while the standing committees of the Senate will not have been made up tomorrow, we shall meet, as usual, at 12 o'clock, and at 1 o'clock assemble in the Hall of the House of Representatives, where the President of the United States will deliver his annual message. We shall, therefore, be in session for some time before we proceed to the House Chamber, and during that time there will be a morning hour, in which Members of the Senate may introduce bills and present resolutions to be appropriately referred.

ADJOURNMENT OUT OF RESPECT TO MEMORY OF SENATOR COPELAND

Mr. WAGNER. Mr. President, as a further mark of respect to the memory of our late colleague, Senator COPELAND, I move that the Senate do now adjourn.

The motion was unanimously agreed to; and (at 12 o'clock and 30 minutes p. m.) the Senate adjourned until tomorrow, Wednesday, January 4, 1939, at 12 o'clock meridian.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

TUESDAY, JANUARY 3, 1939

The third day of January being the day prescribed by the Constitution for the meeting of the Seventy-sixth Congress, the Members-elect of the House of Representatives met in their Hall and at 12 o'clock noon was called to order by Hon. South Trimble, Clerk of the last House.

Rev. James Shera Montgomery, D. D., Chaplain of the Seventy-fifth Congress, offered the following

PRAYER

Eternal God and Father of Mankind, in these waiting moments breathe upon us Thy holy spirit; may we be deeply conscious of the truth and reality of the divine presence. Forgive our selfish and ignoble ambitions and inspire us with a broad comprehension of the public service. Quicken us with that deathless faith that lifts beyond the stars. We praise Thee for that love which sanctifies the home, that insures the perpetuity of our Nation and makes the world akin. May every wistful hope and lingering desire find fruition in the spirit of the Master. Thou who holdest in Thy heart the secret of human life and destiny, hear every prayer; speak in every tongue in all the earth to the noble army of the distressed and unfortunate. Oh, stay Thou the tragic sufferings which follow in the train of war. We fervently pray that our President may be attended by the richest blessings of grace, mercy, and good health. Sustain in the folds of Thy fatherly care our distinguished Speaker, and may brotherly love, patriotism, and statesmanship prevail among all Members. Graciously remember all others who are associated in any way with the Congress. Open Thou our lips as we pray our Saviour's prayer:

Our Father who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come; Thy will be done in earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil, for Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

The CLERK. Representatives-elect, this is the day fixed by the Constitution of the United States for the meeting of the Seventy-sixth Congress of the United States of America. The Clerk of the House of Representatives of the Seventy-fifth Congress will call the names of those present whose credentials show that they were regularly elected as Representatives in accordance with the laws of their respective States or of the United States.

As the names are called, following the alphabetical order of the States, Representatives-elect will please answer "present" to determine whether a quorum is present.

The Clerk will proceed with the call.

The Clerk called the roll, and the following Members answered to their names:

PRESENTATION OF THE SPEAKER-ELECT

The committee appointed by the Clerk escorted Mr. BANKHEAD to the chair.

Mr. MARTIN of Massachusetts. My colleagues, it is seldom one finds consolation in defeat, but I find considerable comfort today, when I look over on my left and see the fairly well filled Republican benches, and I visualize what may happen in 1940. [Laughter and applause.]

Gracious custom has given me a pleasant duty to perform this afternoon. I am privileged to present to you a colleague for whom I have a great personal affection; one who is a really great American. [Applause.] He is one of the real stars that has fallen on Alabama. Fourteen years ago when I first came to this House, he was an outstanding Member and he has been a conspicuous and able Member during this entire period. Ten years ago I was honored with a place on the Rules Committee. There I came to know him intimately, and there an affection formed which has grown as the years have passed. I have found him to be a man of great intellectual attainment; skilled in parliamentary knowledge; one with a thorough knowledge of the great national problems, and a fine patriot. He has performed his work solely with regard to the welfare of his country. It is a fine privilege to present today a great American, my personal friend, the new

Speaker of the House of Representatives, Hon. WILLIAM B. BANKHEAD, of Alabama. [Applause.]

The SPEAKER. Mr. Minority Leader and Members of the first session of the Seventy-sixth Congress, I have, of course, been very profoundly touched and gratified not only by the very generous words of praise uttered in my behalf by our new distinguished minority leader, but also by the very generous manifestations from the floor of the approval of my election as Speaker of this Congress.

I want to thank JOE MARTIN—and I am assuming the liberty of calling him by his first name—for those most generous and praiseful words. I appreciate them, coming as I am sure they are, as a sincere expression of the sentiment upon the minority side of this House. [Applause.] I am glad that that gentleman from Massachusetts has been elevated to the position of party responsibility which he now occupies. [Applause.] I feel that by virtue of his long service here, of his disinterested and effective work in behalf not only of his party but of the country, he has fully justified this expression of confidence upon the part of his Republican colleagues. But, being somewhat of a sentimental "cuss," I cannot refrain—and Joe will understand this, of course—from expressing my very deep regret at not seeing over there in charge of the minority my dear friend, Bert Snell, of New York [applause], a man who through almost a quarter of a century of illustrious service in the House of Representatives has not only captivated, but deserved, the respect and confidence of the Members upon both sides of the aisle. [Applause.] In his voluntary departure from the scene of public and political activity, although I do not see—yes; there is Bert sitting back there. I had not seen him before. We want you to know that you will carry away with you to private life the universal respect, confidence, and affection not only of the Members upon your own side but of the Democrats who sit on this side as well.

At the expense of being somewhat repetitious and incurring the censure of Mr. Shakespeare's quotation about a Twice-Told Tale, I feel justified, however, not only in view of my admiration for JOE MARTIN and of his distinguished ability to which I have referred, but as a mark of my confidence and esteem, in expressing the hope that for many years he will be the leader of the minority party. [Applause.] The gentleman, of course, in his spirit of temporary political jubilation has made reference to the fact that there is a considerable accretion to the number of the Members sitting to the left of the chair; but being somewhat of a statistical turn of mind I will recall to the gentleman that there are still a good many vacancies on the left side of the chair. [Laughter.]

Now, gentlemen, having spoken in these terms of pleasantry, and possibly with some facetiousness, in conclusion, I desire to utter a rather serious note. I express to my Democratic colleagues again, as I undertook to do in our party conference upon yesterday, my unmeasured and indescribable gratitude for this further mark of your confidence and your esteem. This is the third time—possibly somewhat of an unparalleled fact in the annals of our Government—a third time that I have been unanimously nominated for this great position by my party associates without opposition; and I trust that this is an evidence, as I am sure it is, of the fact that despite my infirmities, despite all of the acknowledged limitations of my intellectual capacities, you have seen fit again to express your confidence at least in my character and in my desire to serve my party and to serve my country, and for this I am again most grateful.

May I say to the minority Members, many of them new men who have come here, that I have never yet seen a man who occupied this distinguished position who showed by his rulings, by his presiding over the House of Representatives, or by his spirit and soul any possible disposition to be unfair to the Members of the minority, whichever party might be in the majority in this House; and, looking back upon my career as your Speaker since June 1936, I take some satisfaction and gratification from the fact that to the very best of my ability I have undertaken to carry out those noble and disinterested mental attainments and desires of my predecessors, and I promise you a continuance as long as I am Speaker of the House. [Applause.]

I imagine I have already spoken too long. This is an eventful Congress. On the 4th day of March coming, gentlemen, we will celebrate the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the meeting of the first Congress of the United States under our Constitution, an event of great historical significance, and one that, in my opinion, should be adequately celebrated by some memorial service upon the floor of this House. I come into this Chamber sometimes alone and let my mind and my imagination meditate upon the debates that have taken place in this Chamber and upon the great American intellects which in the decades and the eras past have contended upon the floor of this House, upon the great and noble traditions that those great Americans have handed down under our system of representative government to those who sit in these seats today. It ought to be stimulating to all of us, old and new Members alike, to reflect upon the dignity and the opportunity we have through our service here to carry out these magnificent traditions of the men who have served here before.

I am sure that that spirit will animate this body, and because I am almost in political conduct as much a partisan as any man living, I hope you will not blame me for that, as I do not blame you gentlemen for having inherited or acquired some of your political leanings. But speaking under the spirit of this occasion, under the aegis of this flag and in the presence of that eagle, under the dome of our great Capitol, dedicated to constitutional freedom and representative government for a great people [applause], down in our hearts, despite this imaginary partisan line, I know that my beloved Democratic brethren on this side of the aisle, as well as my respected, and in many instances beloved, brethren on the other side of the aisle, can well afford here today, all of us, in the spirit I have suggested, to reconsecrate our brain, our energy, our heart, our intellect, and our purposes as a great representative body of the American people to do those things which in our collective judgment will best subserve the safety and security of the future and guaranteed perpetuity of our representative institutions. [Applause.]

I am now prepared to take the oath of office as Speaker and I request that the gentleman from Illinois, the Honorable ADOLPH J. SABATH, dean of this House in point of service, administer to me the oath of office. [Applause.]

Mr. SABATH then administered the oath of office to the Speaker.

SWEARING IN OF THE MEMBERS

The SPEAKER. Some years ago a precedent which had theretofore existed of having the oath administered to Members by States was discontinued and a precedent set whereby all Members took the oath of office at one and the same time. In order to avoid confusion the Chair thinks it best to follow the latter precedent, and the Chair asks each Member of the House and each Delegate to rise in his place while the Chair administers the oath of office.

The Members-elect and the Delegates rose, and the Speaker administered the oath of office.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, I offer a resolution, which I send to the Clerk's desk and ask for its immediate consideration.

The Clerk read the resolution, as follows:

Resolved, That South Trimble, of the State of Kentucky, be, and he is hereby chosen the Clerk of the House of Representatives; That Kenneth Romney, of the State of Montana, be, and he is hereby chosen the Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives; That Joseph J. Sinnott, of the State of Virginia, be, and he is hereby chosen Doorkeeper of the House of Representatives; That Finis E. Scott, of the State of Tennessee, be, and he is hereby chosen Postmaster of the House of Representatives; and That Rev. James Shera Montgomery, D. D., of the District of Columbia, be, and he is hereby chosen Chaplain of the House of Representatives.

Mr. WOODRUFF of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, I ask that the resolution be divided, and that a separate vote be taken upon the office of Chaplain, and that that vote be taken first, after which I will submit a substitute for the pending resolution.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Michigan demands a division of the resolution, and, under the rules, he is clearly entitled to a division.

The resolution was divided; the question was taken, and Rev. James Shera Montgomery, D. D., was elected Chaplain of the House of Representatives for the Seventy-sixth Congress.

Mr. WOODRUFF of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, I offer a substitute resolution for the resolution offered by the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. McCORMACK], which I send to the Clerk's desk.

The Clerk read the substitute resolution, as follows:

Resolved, That William Tyler Page, of the State of Maryland, be, and he is hereby, chosen Clerk of the House of Representatives; That W. F. Russell, of the State of Pennsylvania, be, and he is hereby, chosen Sergeant at Arms of the House of Representatives; That John Andrews, of the State of Massachusetts, be, and he is hereby, chosen Doorkeeper of the House of Representatives; and That Frank W. Collier, of the State of Wisconsin, be, and he is hereby, chosen Postmaster of the House of Representatives.

The substitute resolution was rejected.

The SPEAKER. The question is on the original resolution.

The resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

Mr. South Trimble, Mr. Kenneth Romney, Mr. Joseph J. Sinnott, Mr. Finis E. Scott, and the Reverend James Shera Montgomery, D. D., appeared at the bar of the House and the oath of office was administered to them by the Speaker.

Mr. DOUGHTON. Mr. Speaker, I offer a resolution.

The Clerk read as follows:

The resolution was agreed to.

MAJORITY AND MINORITY FLOOR LEADERS

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, by direction of the Democratic caucus, I desire to notify the House and my colleagues officially of the election as majority leader of the Seventy-sixth Congress of our distinguished colleague the gentleman from Texas [Mr. RAYBURN]. [Applause.]

Mr. WOODRUFF of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, by direction of the Republican conference, I officially notify the House that the Honorable JOSEPH W. MARTIN, Jr., a Representative-elect from the State of Massachusetts, was selected by the conference as the minority leader. [Applause.]

The Clerk read as follows:

The resolution was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints the gentleman from Texas [Mr. RAYBURN], the gentleman from North Carolina [Mr. DOUGHTON], and the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. MARTIN].

NOTIFICATION OF ELECTION OF SPEAKER AND CLERK

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, I offer a resolution.

The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 4

BANKHEAD, a Representative from the State of Alabama, Speaker, and South Trimble, a citizen of the State of Kentucky, Clerk of the House of Representatives of the Seventy-sixth Congress.

The resolution was agreed to.

MINORITY EMPLOYEES

Mr. WOODRUFF of Michigan. Mr. Speaker, I have a substitute resolution including the minority employees of the House.

Mr. Speaker, I offer a resolution that the minority employees of the House be elected at this time.

Mr. RAYBURN. Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry. Would it not be proper for the gentleman from Michigan to offer a resolution with respect to minority Members as an amendment to the resolution of the gentleman from Massachusetts [Mr. McCORMACK]?

Mr. WOODRUFF of Michigan. I may say to the gentleman the gentleman from Michigan offered it as an amendment.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman offered it as an amendment?

Mr. WOODRUFF of Michigan. The gentleman from Michigan offered it as an amendment, Mr. Speaker, when he first proposed it.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is of the opinion he should be more particularly informed of the resolution. Will the gentleman withhold that for just a moment?

Mr. WOODRUFF of Michigan. I withhold it. Mr. Speaker.

MESSAGE FROM THE SENATE

A message from the Senate, by Mr. Frazier, its legislative clerk, announced that the Senate had adopted the following resolutions:

Senate Resolution 1

Resolved, That a committee consisting of two Senators be appointed to join such committee as may be appointed by the House of Representatives to wait upon the President of the United States and inform him that a quorum of each House is assembled and that the Congress is ready to receive any communication he may be pleased to make.

The message also announced that in accordance with the foregoing resolution the Vice President appointed Mr. BARKLEY and Mr. McNARY as members of the committee on the part of the Senate.

Senate Resolution 2

Resolved, That the Secretary inform the House of Representatives that a quorum of the Senate is assembled and that the Senate is ready to proceed to business.

Senate Resolution 4

Resolved, That the Senate has heard with profound sorrow and deep regret the announcement of the death of Hon. ROYAL S. COPELAND, late a Senator from the State of New York.

Resolved, That the Secretary communicate these resolutions to the House of Representatives and transmit a copy thereof to the family of the deceased.

Resolved, That as a further mark of respect to the memory of the deceased the Senate do now adjourn.

RECESSES OF THE HOUSE

Mr. RAYBURN. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent, notwithstanding the rules of the House, that it may be in order to move a recess of the House during the remainder of the week.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Texas?

There was no objection.

RULES OF THE HOUSE

Mr. SABATH. Mr. Speaker, I offer a resolution, which I send to the Clerk's desk.

The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 5

Resolved, That the Rules of the House of Representatives of the Seventy-fifth Congress be adopted as the Rules of the House of Representatives of the Seventy-sixth Congress with the following amendments:

(1) Clause 24, rule XI: Strike out the language of the clause and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"To the pensions of all the wars of the United States and peacetime service, other than the Spanish-American War, Philippine Insurrection, Boxer Rebellion, and World War—to the Committee on Invalid Pensions."

(2) Clause 25, rule XI: Strike out the language of the clause and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"To the pensions of the Spanish-American War, Philippine Insurrection, and Boxer Rebellion—to the Committee on Pensions."

(3) Clause 40, rule XI: Strike out the language of the clause and insert in lieu thereof the following:

"To war-risk insurance of soldiers, sailors, and marines, and other persons in the military and naval service of the United States during or growing out of the World War, the United States Veterans' Bureau, the compensations, allowances, and pensions of such persons and their beneficiaries, and all legislation affecting them other than civil service, public lands, adjusted compensations, and private claims—to the Committee on World War Veterans' Legislation."

Mr. SABATH. Mr. Speaker, the resolution provides changes in clauses 24, 25, and 40 of rule XI of the last Congress, and this change of rule XI is proposed upon the urgent request of the chairmen of the three Pension Committees. I am satisfied this will expedite the work of the House and simplify the reference of bills to the respective committees.

Mr. O'CONNOR and Mr. SWEENEY rose.

Mr. O'CONNOR. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman from Illinois to yield for a question?

Mr. SABATH. I yield for a question only.

Mr. SWEENEY. Mr. Speaker, I desire to submit a parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. O'CONNOR. The question I wish to propound to the gentleman from Illinois is whether or not I may, at this time, propose an amendment to the rules as submitted.

Mr. SABATH. The gentleman from Montana has the right to offer his resolution, and I can assure the gentleman from Montana that the resolution will receive due consideration at the hands of the Rules Committee.

Mr. O'CONNOR. I realize that the gentleman from Illinois has the floor and I am speaking only through his courtesy, but does the gentleman deny me the right to offer now an amendment to the rules?

Mr. SABATH. I am not denying the gentleman anything, but I am saying that the gentleman will have the right to introduce his resolution, and I only yielded for a question at this time.

Mr. MAPES and Mr. SWEENEY rose.

Mr. SABATH. Does the gentleman from Michigan [Mr. MAPES] desire to propound a question?

Mr. MAPES. Yes, Mr. Speaker; I would like to ask the gentleman from Illinois a question.

For the purpose of the RECORD I think it would be well if the gentleman would tell the House more clearly and more in detail how his proposed amendments would change the rules as they are now. Let me say further to the gentleman that knowing his long record as an advocate of a liberalization of the rules, as well as being a 100-percent supporter of the administration, I am somewhat surprised to find him offering amendments to the rules without bringing in an amendment changing the number required on a discharge petition from 218 to 150 or 145.

Mr. SABATH. I yielded to my colleague for a question.

Mr. MAPES. I am coming to my question.

Mr. SABATH. I appreciate the gentleman's remarks, as well as the compliment the gentleman pays me, and if the gentleman from Michigan desires to ask a question I shall endeavor to answer it. If the gentleman desires any additional information about these proposed amendments I shall be delighted to explain them.

Mr. MAPES. I am coming to the question but let me say to the gentleman that I hate to see him, as his first act as prospective chairman of the Rules Committee, spoil his record as an advocate of a liberalization of the rules. The question I wish to ask the gentleman, inasmuch as he is a 100-percent supporter of the administration, is whether it is the policy of the administration not to change the discharge rule?

Mr. SABATH. I am indeed grateful to my colleague from Michigan who has always been my friend and who gives me credit for the liberal principles for which I have fought and still stand. I am also grateful for the compliment he pays me on my loyalty to the administration which stands, as he knows, for justice, humanity, and real principles of democracy.

The gentleman from Michigan has been a member of our distinguished committee long enough to know that the rules can only be changed by the membership of the House itself.

I repeat what I have stated to the gentleman from Montana that he or any other Member will be given the fullest courtesy of our committee.

As to the consideration of the resolution today, the gentleman in his long service here realizes that the House does not legislate on the opening day of the session.

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. SABATH. I yield to the gentleman from Mississippi for a question.

Mr. RANKIN. I was going to answer the question of the gentleman from Michigan.

Mr. MAPES. Mr. Speaker, may I ask the gentleman one further question?

The SPEAKER. To whom does the gentleman from Illinois yield?

Mr. SABATH. I yield to the gentleman from Michigan, a member of the Rules Committee.

Mr. MAPES. My understanding of the proposed amendments to the rules which the gentleman has introduced, is that they more clearly define the jurisdiction of these three committees.

Mr. SABATH. The gentleman is correct.

Mr. MAPES. And that the amendments will avoid, perhaps, some duplication which now exists.

Mr. SABATH. The gentleman is again correct.

Mr. MAPES. While that is true generally, in the amendment proposed to clause 40 of rule XI, I notice that the word "pension" is inserted. It has not been in the rule heretofore, and I would like to inquire of the gentleman whether it is contemplated that in this Congress that committee shall consider legislation to give pensions to veterans of the World War.

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman from Illinois yield to the gentleman from Mississippi [Mr. RANKIN]?

Mr. SABATH. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Mississippi, who is the chairman of one of these committees, and who recommended many of the changes in this rule.

Mr. RANKIN. Mr. Speaker, as chairman of the World War Veterans' Committee, I desire to say that we have no idea of changing the policy that we have followed heretofore.

Mr. MAPES. That is the only change of substance in the rule that I can see.

Mr. RANKIN. Except that it does define the jurisdiction of the various committees, and let me say to the gentleman from Michigan that we have come to the point where bills involving legislation having to do with veterans of various wars, indiscriminately, I will say, are referred to the various committees. This is to define the jurisdiction and to place all World War veterans' legislation under the jurisdiction of the Committee on World War Veterans' Legislation.

Mr. MAPES. What is the purpose of inserting the word "pensions" in the proposed amendment?

Mr. RANKIN. So that all bills that involve World War veterans' legislation may be properly referred to the Committee on World War Veterans' Legislation. Otherwise they would be referred to some pension committee.

Mr. MAPES. Does the gentleman contemplate that his committee will during this Congress consider legislation to award pensions to the veterans of the World War?

Mr. RANKIN. No. It is our purpose to follow the policy pursued heretofore, and where those bills are referred to our committee, they will be considered on the basis of compensation.

Mr. SWEENEY. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. SABATH. I yield to the gentleman for a question.

Mr. SWEENEY. In view of the fact that many Members of this House on both sides of the aisle made obligations before they were elected to vote, if given the opportunity, to change the discharge petition rule, I ask the gentleman now, as chairman of the Committee on Rules—undoubtedly he will be—and whose resolution is pending on the Speaker's desk, whether we will be given that opportunity to vote on the question of a change in the rules governing the action of this body during the Seventy-sixth Congress?

Mr. SABATH. I assure the gentleman that as one of the members of the Committee on Rules, I shall give the gentleman or try to obtain consent of the committee to give him and others a hearing on that resolution.

Mr. SWEENEY. I thank the gentleman very much.

Mrs. ROGERS of Massachusetts. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. SABATH. Yes.

Mrs. ROGERS of Massachusetts. Is the power of the World War Veterans' Committee in any way endangered by this rule?

Mr. SABATH. No; it is not.

Mr. RAYBURN. The jurisdiction of that committee is protected by this resolution.

Mrs. ROGERS of Massachusetts. And also the pensions and the claims of veterans of all of the other wars?

Mr. RAYBURN. It makes the jurisdiction of this committee better.

Mr. DOWELL. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. SABATH. Yes.

Mr. DOWELL. The gentleman has stated that he will use his influence to see that the House has an opportunity to vote on the discharge rule.

Mr. SABATH. Oh, no. I said I would use my influence with the Committee on Rules.

Mr. DOWELL. The gentleman can have that opportunity now to give the House an opportunity to vote on the discharge rule, and I ask whether he will give us that opportunity.

Mr. SABATH. Oh, that is not a proper question.

Mr. DOWELL. It is a very important question. And may I ask if the gentleman will give the House the opportunity to vote on this discharge rule?

Mr. SABATH. I repeat and assure the gentleman from Iowa that any Members interested in that resolution or any other resolution will receive courteous treatment at the hands of our committee.

Mr. Speaker, I move the previous question on the resolution. The previous question was ordered.

The SPEAKER. The question is on agreeing to the resolution.

The resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider the vote by which the resolution was agreed to was laid on the table.

Mr. RAYBURN. Mr. Speaker, your committee appointed to join a similar committee of the Senate to notify the President of the United States that the two Houses of Congress are organized and ready for business, have performed that function. The resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

MEMBERSHIP OF COMMITTEE ON APPROPRIATIONS AND COMMITTEE ON RULES

Mr. RAYBURN. Mr. Speaker, I offer a resolution (H. Res. 9), which I send to the desk.

The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 9

The resolution was agreed to.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

PREAMBLES FOR BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS

Mr. RAYBURN. Mr. Speaker, I desire to propound a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state the parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. RAYBURN. Mr. Speaker, I do this in order to try to be helpful to all of us.

A custom has grown up in this House that when resolutions or bills are to be presented, in many instances a preamble is inserted preceding the resolution or bill, which preamble states that several or many Members are cosponsors or coauthors of the bill. If that is correct parliamentary procedure and good practice, we would like to know it, and I propound the inquiry to the Speaker, if that is the proper way in which to present a bill or resolution to the House?

The SPEAKER. The Chair is prepared to answer the parliamentary inquiry of the gentleman from Texas. This matter was brought to the attention of the Chair during the last session of Congress, but it was not thought propitious at that time, for certain reasons, to develop it. It is a matter of considerable concern to all Members, and the Chair will read a prepared answer to the inquiry propounded by the gentleman from Texas.

The question as to the right of two or more Members to jointly introduce bills, petitions, and resolutions was decided adversely by the House in agreeing to a report from a select committee appointed by Mr. Speaker Cannon in 1909 to inquire into that question. That committee in its report stated:

While the rule itself does not in express terms prohibit the attaching of the name of more than one Member to a bill or resolution when it is delivered to the Clerk or to the Speaker, as the case may be, for reference, attention is called to the second clause, requiring that under certain conditions the bill "shall be returned to the Member from whom it was received." The House, however, in the conduct of its business, is not controlled, nor is the business conducted merely in accordance with the express rules of the House. There are many situations not specifically covered by the written rules, which are, nevertheless, regulated definitely by the procedure which has come down from time immemorial and which procedure is essential to the orderly conduct of the business of the House.

Rule XLIV, which was first adopted in 1837, provides that "the rules of the parliamentary practice in Jefferson's Manual shall govern the House in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the standing rules and orders of the House and the joint rules of the Senate and the House of Representatives."

A casual examination of rule XXII does not disclose any inhibition against the attachment of more than a single name to a bill or resolution. Examined in the light of the evolution of the rules and practice relating to the presentation of bills, however, and bearing in mind the purpose sought to be accomplished by the changes made from time to time resulting finally in the introduction of all bills without the formality of recognition, it seems clear to the committee that the underlying principle of individual recognition still prevails and that the presentation of a bill involves such recognition.

Possible abuses from the continuance of the practice are not discussed, since the committee is unanimously of the opinion that under the true and proper construction of the rule the attaching of the name of more than one Member to a bill or resolution is unauthorized.

Since the adoption of that report there have been no instances in the House where two or more Members have jointly introduced a bill or resolution.

During the Seventy-fifth Congress a question arose privately as to whether a Member introducing a bill or resolution could attach thereto a preamble in which was included the names of a number of other Members as coauthors and cosponsors of the bill or resolution. In two instances bills having preambles which had in them the names of coauthors and cosponsors were introduced and referred to committees before notice was had of this unusual practice. Subsequently, several Members of the House privately raised the question with the Speaker and the Parliamentarian as to whether this was a proper legislative practice. Since that time the Speaker has given careful and diligent study to the question and has arrived at these conclusions:

A preamble is an introduction prefixed to a statute, reciting the intention of the legislature in framing it, or the evils which led to its enactment. It is no more than a recital of some inconveniences, which does not exclude any other, for which a remedy is given by the enacting part of the statute. It was pointed out in Green v. Neal (6 Pet. U. S. 301) that a preamble is said to be the key of a statute, to open the minds of the makers as to the mischiefs which are to be remedied and the objects which are to be accomplished by the provisions of the statute. The Speaker, in his study of the question, has found no instances where a preamble was used for the purpose of stating coauthorship or cosponsorship of a statute.

It will be seen from the above that the practice of including coauthors and cosponsors in the preamble to a bill or resolution is unprecedented in the House, and considering this question in the light of the report of the special committee in 1909 it will be observed that the practice is in violation of the spirit of the rules and practices of the House of Representatives. As was pointed out in the report of the special committee adopted in 1909 that "there are many situations not specifically covered by the written rules which are nevertheless regulated definitely by the procedure which has come down from time immemorial and which procedure is essential to the orderly conduct of the business of the House" it would seem that the practice of Members introducing bills and resolutions having preambles which include the names of coauthors and cosponsors should not be permitted.

Under certain circumstances as provided in rule XXII of the House the Speaker may cause to be returned to a Member a bill or resolution which does not conform to the practice therein stated. The Speaker thinks that that rule could be a proper guide for him in the future where two or more Members jointly introduce a bill or resolution or where a Member introducing a bill or resolution includes in the preamble thereto the names of coauthors and cosponsors. The Speaker, therefore, in the future, where that practice is indulged in, will return such bills and resolutions to the Member introducing them.

Mr. McCORMACK. Mr. Speaker, a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. McCORMACK. For the purpose of definiteness, is my understanding correct that the Speaker's opinion confines itself only to a preamble where there are named coauthors and not to preambles in general?

The SPEAKER. Under the construction of the spirit, and the Chair feels under the letter of the view just announced by the Speaker, it would include an inhibition against the naming of cosponsors and nothing else.

Mr. RICH. Mr. Speaker—

The SPEAKER. For what purpose does the gentleman from Pennsylvania rise?

Mr. RICH. To make an inquiry of the Chair.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his parliamentary inquiry.

Mr. RICH. Is my interpretation of the Speaker's ruling correct that such bills will not go to the Public Printer, will not be dealt with by the Committee on Printing at all, but that the Speaker himself will return such bills to their sponsors?

The SPEAKER. The Chair, under the interpretation just made, which the Chair feels is fortified by reason and precedent, would only return the bill to the Member offering it, in order that he might make such corrections as would conform to the ruling of the Chair.

Sincerely yours,

Resolved, That the Speaker, or a deputy named by him, be, and he is hereby, authorized to administer the oath of office to said GEORGE P. DARROW at Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania, and that the said oath be accepted and received by the House as the oath of office of the said GEORGE P. DARROW.

EXTENSION OF REMARKS

Mr. LUDLOW. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to extend my own remarks in the RECORD, and I ask that that privilege may be extended to two extensions of my own remarks.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Indiana?

There was no objection.

Mr. MANSFIELD and Mr. CELLER asked and were given permission to extend their own remarks in the RECORD.

Mr. MARTIN of Colorado. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to extend my own remarks in the RECORD and to include therein a radio talk made by myself in my congressional district, together with a brief newspaper editorial comment on my record as a Representative.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Colorado?

Mr. RICH. Mr. Speaker, reserving the right to object, may I ask the gentleman from Colorado [Mr. MARTIN] or the majority leader, if it is going to be the policy of the majority leader and the administration that has the majority in the House to grant permission to insert editorials of this kind in the RECORD?

Mr. RAYBURN. I may say to the gentleman that until there is an agreement entered into by the Joint Committee on Printing with reference to a rule that will apply to both the Senate and House of Representatives, I am not going to object to Members of the House inserting things in the RECORD. If we do object, the next day we see it appear in the RECORD, placed therein by another body. I am not going to take this responsibility. I do not think it is fair to my colleagues on either side of the aisle.

Mr. RICH. I appreciate that, but the majority leader may have some influence with the Senate. He may be able to have them reach an agreement whereby we could have the RECORD confined to acts of Congress and not to speeches of every Tom, Dick, and Harry all over the United States.

Mr. RAYBURN. I have been suggesting for 2 years that the committee of which the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. RICH] is a distinguished member, meet with the committee of the body on the other side and try to come to some arrangement about this matter, but I have had no report therefrom.

Mr. RICH. May I say to the majority leader that the gentleman from Pennsylvania has endeavored to reach an agreement with the Senate, but has had no luck? I cannot get them to act. Now, I thought the gentleman from Texas [Mr. RAYBURN] might take some action and we would probably get results. I am looking forward to the gentleman convincing not only the Democratic Members of the House but the Democratic Members of the Senate to get some action.

Mr. RAYBURN. If I did that, I would not be able to convince the Republican Members of the House and Senate.

Mr. MARTIN of Colorado. I would like to have the gentleman from Pennsylvania [Mr. RICH] understand that the editorial in question refers only to my record as a Representative.

Mr. RICH. I may say to the gentleman from Colorado, I do not want to prevent any Member of the House extending his own remarks. I want to be fair to all Members of the House, whether they be Democrats or Republicans, but it seems to me we ought to do what some Members of the House would like to have done; however, I do not want to assume that responsibility. I am like the majority leader. I think it is unfair that we eliminate this privilege as far as the Members of the House are concerned and let the Senate go ahead and put everything in. After consent has been refused in the House the matter is taken over to the Senate and the Senate agrees to put anything in the RECORD it sees fit. That is not right.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Colorado?

There was no objection.

Mr. BOLAND. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to extend my remarks by placing in the RECORD a radio address delivered by our distinguished Speaker last night over a Nation-wide hook-up.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Pennsylvania?

There was no objection.

HON. EDWARD W. CREAL

Mr. SPENCE. Mr. Speaker, I offer a resolution.

The Clerk read as follows:

House Resolution 15

Whereas EDWARD W. CREAL, a Representative from the State of Kentucky, from the Fourth District thereof, has been unable from sickness to appear in person to be sworn as a Member of the House, and there being no contest or question as to his election: Therefore be it

Resolved, That the Speaker, or a deputy named by him, be, and he is hereby, authorized to administer the oath of office to said EDWARD W. CREAL at Louisville, in the State of Kentucky, and that the said oath, when administered as herein authorized, shall be accepted and received by the House as the oath of office of the said EDWARD W. CREAL.

The resolution was agreed to.

HON. WILLIAM F. COLE, JR.

Mr. GOLDSBOROUGH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to announce the unavoidable absence of my colleague the gentleman from Maryland [Mr. COLE.]

EXTENSION OF REMARKS

Mrs. ROGERS of Massachusetts. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to extend my remarks in the RECORD and include therein the remarks I made at Lowell, Mass., at a great mass meeting which was held December 30 to protest against the abuse of the minorities and the atrocities perpetrated upon them by the countries under dictatorship. I also wish to include in my remarks a resolution passed at that meeting.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentlewoman from Massachusetts?

There was no objection.

Mrs. ROGERS of Massachusetts. Mr. Speaker, I further ask unanimous consent to extend my remarks in the RECORD in respect of a bill I have introduced that asks for the help and assistance of the people who suffered as a result of the hurricane in Massachusetts and in all New England.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentlewoman from Massachusetts?

There was no objection.

Mr. KNUTSON. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to extend my remarks in the RECORD by inserting therein an address by former Senator Gore on the life of our late colleague, W. A. Rodenberg, of Illinois.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Minnesota?

There was no objection.

Mr. BREWSTER asked and was given permission to extend his own remarks in the RECORD.

Mr. IGLESIAS. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to extend my remarks in the RECORD on the government of Puerto Rico.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the Commissioner from Puerto Rico?

There was no objection.

HON. A. F. MACIEJEWSKI AND HON. JOHN C. MARTIN

Mr. SABATH. Mr. Speaker, I desire to make an announcement. Fortunately or unfortunately, two of my Illinois colleagues, although present, could not answer to their names when they were called due to the fact that they were not in a position to be sworn in, the reason being that my colleague, Hon. A. F. MACIEJEWSKI, is the treasurer of Cicero, Ill., and is obliged to sign thousands of dollars worth of bonds that are being issued by that city. He has been advised by attorneys that a legal question might be raised should he be sworn in as a Member before the bonds are signed, and for that reason he was reluctantly obliged to postpone being sworn in as a Member of Congress of the Sixth Congressional District of Illinois.

My other colleague, Hon. JOHN C. MARTIN, is the State treasurer of Illinois and has been unable to complete all his duties, sign all of the documents and papers up to now. There again legal questions might arise had he been sworn in today. Although both of my colleagues have been present in attendance, due to these technical reasons they have been obliged to postpone taking their oaths of office. However, I am informed by both of these gentlemen that within a few days they will be ready to fully qualify as Member of this House.

EXTENSION OF REMARKS

Mr. WHITE of Idaho. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to extend my remarks in the RECORD and include therein a brief letter to the President of the United States, signed by some 68 farmers.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Idaho?

There was no objection.

Mr. FISH. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to extend my remarks in the RECORD by including therein a radio speech by me.

The SPEAKER. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from New York?

There was no objection.
